MEET OUR NCRA REPRESENTATIVE

Christine Phipps, RPR
President of Phipps Reporting, Inc.
NCRA President-Elect
Palm Beach Gardens, Florida

Christine Phipps is a Registered Professional Reporter, President of Phipps Reporting, Inc., and current President-Elect of the National Court Reporters Association.

She received her degree in court reporting from Broward State College. She started out as an official court reporter for the first two years of her career, and then spent the next 15 years working all over the world as a freelance court reporter. After building relationships all over the country, Christine opened her own court reporting and litigation support agency, Phipps Reporting.

In addition to reporting, Christine is also an Eclipse Trainer and has served as Chair of NCRA's Technology and Freelance Committees and served on many others.

Christine was awarded the 2014 Most Enterprising Woman of the Year, Gamechanger of the Year, and Small Business Woman-Owned Person of the Year. Christine's company, Phipps Reporting, made the Inc. 5000 list every year since 2014, making her the first Honorary member of the Inc. 5000 in our industry. She has received numerous other business awards such as Gamechanger of the Year.

She currently resides in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida and has three children; Brandon, Jarrod and Skylar and her grandson, Forrest.
