MEET OUR NCRA REPRESENTATIVE

Kristin M. Anderson, RPR, CSR, FCRR
NCRA Secretary-Treasurer
San Antonio, Texas

Kristin Anderson is an official court reporter for Bexar County Civil District Court. Ms. Anderson graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Management and Human Relations in 2012. She holds the nationally recognized professional certification of Registered Professional Reporter (RPR). With more than 20 years of experience, she has worked both as a freelance reporter in Kansas and Missouri and as an official court reporter for Illinois and Kansas.

Ms. Anderson worked for the U.S. District Court Western District of Texas from 2013 through 2017 and has her Federal Certified Realtime Reporter (FCRR) designation with the United States Court Reporters Association (USCRA).

At the national level, Kristin is a past chair of the National Congress of State Associations and served on that committee in various capacities from 2006 through 2014. She also served on the Veterans Liaison Committee of NCRA's New Professionals Committee, the Membership and Telemarketing Committee, the Steno Opportunities in the Courts Task Force, and served on the Board Policy and Procedures and Finance Committees. Ms. Anderson currently chairs the Finance Committee and Audit Committee as the Secretary-Treasurer.

At the state level, Kristin has served in numerous positions and on various committees for the Kansas Court Reporters Association, including as president for two terms. She served on the Texas Court Reporters Association Convention and Ethics Committees in 2015-2016. Ms. Anderson is a member of the Bexar County Court Reporters Association, Texas Court Reporters Association, Texas Depositions Reporters Association, and USCRA.
